Idaho Department of Insurance Director voted NAIC President-elect

BOISE, ID – This week, Idaho Department of Insurance Director Dean L. Cameron was voted President-elect of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC).

The NAIC is part of the state-based system of insurance regulation in the 50 states, the District of Columbia and five U.S. territories. Director Cameron served as Vice President of the NAIC for 2020. Starting January 1, 2021 Director Cameron will become the organization’s President-Elect and in January 2022 he will become President.

“The responsibility to defend the role of state insurance departments from federal intervention is one I take very seriously,” said Director Dean Cameron. “Allowing states to be their own laboratories of innovation not only strengthens the industry, but also empowers states to better protect consumers. I am profoundly grateful to be part of a leadership team that shares those same values, and it is an honor to lead the Idaho way with common sense approaches and solutions.”

Through the NAIC, state insurance regulators establish standards and best practices, conduct peer reviews, and coordinate regulatory oversight to effectively regulate the industry and protect consumers. For more information about the NAIC’s newly elected officers, click here.

About the Department of Insurance

The Idaho Department of Insurance has been regulating the business of insurance in Idaho since 1901. The mission of the Department is to serve and protect Idahoans by equitably, effectively and efficiently administering the Idaho Insurance Code and the International Fire Code.
