Insurance producer license revoked

BOISE ID (July 21, 2016) – The Idaho Department of Insurance has revoked the insurance producer license of Cruz “Kelly” Chacon, Rupert, effective July 19, 2016. In February of this year, Chacon pleaded guilty to a felony charge of aiding and assisting in the preparation and presentation of a false and fraudulent tax document, which is grounds for revoking her license.

Idaho Code provides for the revocation of the license of a producer who has pleaded guilty to any felony which shows dishonesty, a lack of integrity and financial responsibility, or an unfitness and inability to provide acceptable service to the consuming public.

“Insurance professionals hold a position of trust and have a duty to be honest and forthright in all of their dealings,” says Department Director Dean Cameron. “We are obligated to remove the license when we are made aware of misdeeds that could negatively impact the insurance-buying public.”

Chacon did not contest the complaint for revocation. The order is available on the Department’s website.
