

EVENT INSURANCE

“Insure” a Picture-Perfect Event

Are you in charge of planning a big event this holiday season? Along with your checklist of things to do, don't forget to review the liability portion of your homeowners insurance policy. Liability insurance provides coverage for injury or property damage to others as a result of your event.

If your scheduled event will occur at your home, such as a holiday party, graduation party or pool party, visit with your insurance agent to make sure that you have adequate coverage in place for bodily injury and property damage, particularly if you plan on serving alcohol.

Find out if additional coverage can be added to eliminate gaps in your existing policy. Keep your agent's contact information handy during your event in case you need to contact him or her about a claim.

If you have questions or are confused about your insurance options, contact the Department of Insurance, www.doi.idaho.gov.

Get smart about your insurance needs! For more information about auto, home, life and health insurance options — as well as tips for choosing the coverage that is right for you and your family — visit www.InsureUonline.org.

November 2009