Important: We Will Not Offer Your Health Insurance Plan Next Year [In Your Area], But You Have Options for New Coverage
---

Dear Member:

[Issuer name] has decided not to offer your current health insurance plan again next year [in the area you live]. Your current coverage will end [date].

In 2021, [you] [your family] enrolled in a catastrophic health insurance plan through Your Health Idaho. To qualify for enrollment in a catastrophic plan in 2022, [you][you and all your family members] must be under 30 years of age as of January 1, 2022, or [you][your family] must be unable to afford a non-catastrophic health plan in 2022 due to a financial hardship.

If [you][anyone in your family] will be 30 years old or older as of January 1st, and [you want][your family wants] to remain in a catastrophic health insurance plan in 2022, you must apply for a 2022 hardship exemption with Your Health Idaho.

If you do not apply for a 2022 hardship exemption, Your Health Idaho will be selecting a non-catastrophic plan for you offered by a different insurance company and will be sending you a letter with information about the health plan they have selected. Please read that letter carefully to decide whether you want to enroll in the plan Your Health Idaho has selected or a different plan for 2022. It's important that you check the new health insurance plan to determine whether any doctors or other health care providers that you see are included in the new plan, and whether prescription medicines you take are covered.

If you take no action by December 15, 2021, you will be automatically enrolled in the new health insurance plan Your Health Idaho has selected.

Your health insurance options for 2022

If you want to enroll in a health plan other than the one Your Health Idaho has selected for you, you can do so during the Open Enrollment period from November 1, 2021 until December 15, 2021, for coverage effective January 1, 2022. If you select a different health insurance plan, please inform Your Health Idaho by December 15, 2021; otherwise you will be automatically enrolled in the plan Your Health Idaho has selected for you.

- Your Health Idaho Enrollment – Enroll in a new health plan through Your Health Idaho and apply to receive help paying for your health insurance costs if you qualify.
  - If you qualify for help paying out-of-pocket costs like deductibles or co-pays, you must choose a Silver level plan in order to receive this help.
  - Your Health Idaho will also check if you or family members qualify for Medicaid or the Children’s Health Insurance Program (CHIP).
  - You may also enroll in coverage through Your Health Idaho using a certified insurance agent or broker.
  - Remember that if you receive a tax credit to help pay for your health insurance, you must report changes in your income and household size during the year to Your Health Idaho. If you do not report changes, you could owe money when you file your income tax return because your tax credit was based on outdated information.

- Enrollment outside Your Health Idaho – Enroll in a new health plan directly with an insurance company during open enrollment, or get help from a local insurance agent or broker. If you qualify for financial assistance for paying your premiums and out-of-pocket costs, or want to be apply for a hardship exemption in order to enroll in a catastrophic health plan, you must enroll through Your Health Idaho to receive those benefits.
