Open Enrollment for 2024 health insurance is open through December 15, 2023

BOISE, ID (November 7, 2023) – The open enrollment deadline for Idahoans purchasing or changing their individual health coverage for 2024 is December 15, 2023. With rates for health insurance decreasing on average for 2024, Idahoans are encouraged to make sure they are taking full advantage of all the cost savings available to them, making coverage even more affordable.

Idaho consumers have choices from 8 carriers when shopping for individual coverage. In 2024, Select Health, PacificSource Health Plans, Blue Cross of Idaho, Regence Blue Shield of Idaho, Mountain Health CO-OP, Molina Healthcare, Moda Health Plan, and St. Luke's Health Plan, will offer health plans on Idaho's exchange, Your Health Idaho. Similarly, 6 carriers will continue offering dental options.

Those seeking coverage can visit the state's insurance exchange, Your Health Idaho, at yourhealthidaho.org, where a total of 154 medical plans and 21 dental plans can be compared and purchased. Many consumers are eligible for assistance covering premiums, out-of-pocket costs, and deductibles when purchasing through Your Health Idaho. Coverage for plans selected during Open Enrollment begins January 1, 2024.

"Open enrollment only happens once a year, from October 15 to December 15. Now is your opportunity to adjust your plan and review it carefully as networks and benefits may have changed," said Director Dean Cameron. "We recommend consumers contact a licensed insurance agent for help evaluating the various plan options and eligibility for cost-savings."
