Coeur d'Alene fire still under investigation

BOISE, ID (June 14, 2024) – A fire that destroyed a Coeur d'Alene police storage and office building on June 9 is still under investigation, according to the Idaho State Fire Marshal's Office.

The Idaho State Fire Marshal is leading the investigation, along with fire investigators from the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

No injuries were reported and investigations at this point have not identified any evidence of suspicious activity. Final results could be released late next week.
